WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.-The letter of Ex-President Cleveland, committing himself against the free coinage of silver policy, was the absorbing topic of discussion at the Capitol to-day. It was a lively day, too, for the representatives of the press, and the opinions of leading men from all sections of the country were solicited, the intention being to telegraph these expressions to all news centers in the United States.

A variety of opinions were obtained, for Representatives would not talk, the average Democrat espressed a decided willngness to be interviewed on so important a subject. As a rule the Democrats from the Eastern and Middle States agreed with Mr. Cleveland in his oppo-sition to the free and unlimited coinage of silver.
